Attempt: regular

Course of defence: The main problem of this defense is that student perfectly understands the nature of all critical remarks (it means that there was a chance to avoid all problems critically reflected by reviewers) but the problems are there. Also all additional questions were answered in a sovereign way and it's pity that oral performance did not translate to the written text of dissertation. Structure of critical remarks made by all three reviewers is relatively common, also their assessment is common (C). The exam board decided to keep C as a final grade.

Result of defence: very good (C)

Committee members: Mgr. Karel Svoboda, Ph.D. (present) .....
