

Title of the diploma thesis: Characteristics of object detection and the drowned under water of the police corps of the Czech Republic

Goal of the paper: Comparison of qualification diving grades of the divers organization CMAS with qualification diving grades of the Police of the Czech Republic, familiarising with a special activities of professional diving of the police divers.

Method: Comparison of two diving organizations. Characteristics of diving activities of police divers, its analysis during the accomplishment of service tasks.

Outcomes: Highlights the deficiencies of the effective obligatory diving regulation of the Police of the Czech Republic and possible amendment of newly acquired facts.

Key words: Diving qualification, detection methodology and evidence registry, divers action.