

Definition of various types of gardens. Historical development of garden art. The garden as an inspiration for art education. The worksheets with the art themes are included in the theoretical part. Source of inspiration for the practical part is garden not only as a whole but also its components. Structuring of motiv concepts is related to an associational context. Motiv concepts and themes concern enviromental education, enviromental preservation and sustainable development.