

This diploma work deals with a conception of integration and education of Roma children in the atmosphere of Elementary school in Czech Republic. It also includes its following influence of school to learners.

The main aim is given on identification with Roma's culture, history, traditions and other aspects whose influence incorporates Roma pupils in positive or negative way in the group of majority community.

I also describe highlight projects which took place in passed years and one conception of basic school in future.