

The diploma work deals with activity centers which are part of the Step by Step program. In the theoretical part there are mentioned the important information related to the transformation of Czech educational system and its influence on the usage of the Step by Step program in Czech schools. The research part which was led by the action research records particular possibilities of development of social-personal competence in teaching through the activity centers.