

Design and implementation of economy society simulation (at country level). The aim is to simulate commodities and financy flow, supply and demand progress at each market and evolution of the cities. Exactnest of the simulation is not important, but the entertainment and the education aspects. The simulation should contains interactive graphic enviroment, which provides way to influence simulation model.