

Annotation

This the Bachelor work deals with the life quality of children with epilepsy. In the theoretical part I mention the very illness of epilepsy its diagnostics and treatment. Further I focus on the quality of life from the general point of view and the quality of life in relation to the children with epilepsy as well.

In the empirical part I survey with the helps of questionnaires how the children with epilepsy experience their illness. eventually I analyse the acquired data.