

Annotation

Key words: mental anorexy, affects of the starvation on the human organism, warning symptoms, reasons, medicinal treatment and nursery, questionnaire

This bachelor dissertation concentrates on the quality of life of the people with the serious disease connected with the disorder of food reception – mental anorexy.

In the teoretical part I am concentrated on the questions of the reasons, utterances, medicinal treatment and the problems concerning the medicinal nurses approach to such patients.

The core of this dissertation is based on the quantitative research in the form of questionnaire, concentrated on the investigation of the quality of life during the mentioned issues.