Thesis title: Migration, work migration and coherent ethics problems

The thesis brings information regarding current situation of migration and work migration in the Czech republic. A more detailed effort is dedicated to limitation of illegal migration either via EU guidelines application or Assistance Centers aid. The thesis sums up and puts in line latest data that are at disposal at the Czech Bureau of Statistics, Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs and tries to define common questions (problems) related with migration and implies some possible solutions. It calls attention to some ethic problems (brain drain, illegal migration, migrants exploitation). It describes current official position of the Czech republic concerning problems with migration.
