

Annotation

This bachelor's thesis is focus on evidence based medicine and healthcare for patients with MRSA infection or colonization. The main aim of theoretical part was to collect current regional and foreign information about topič and their comparison. The main aim of research part was pilot study to compare knowledge of nursing sisters from selected medical institutions. Respondents were nursing sisters (n=761) from teaching hospitals, 1st and 2nd type hospitals, social care centers and specialized centers.