

This essay called Building of light fortification in Orlicke hory describes not only one chapter on building of Czechoslovak fortification from 1935 to 1938, but it also bring closer building of this defensive system as one entity and make better knowledge about regional history.

First part describes building of light fortification mk. 37 in Orlicke hory and for lucidity is divided into chapters according to single building sectors. Building of each one is described from competition for its building to the end of works in September 1938.

This essay also treat of problems during building.

In second part are included chapters treating groups of people, who took a share in building of fortification, Of this activity touched them. In this part is described work of military building supervisors, workers working on fortification and life of people in the neighbourhood of fortresses.

In the end was insert chapter about preparations on fortresses defence in Orlicke hory.