

Abstract

The diploma thesis is focused on the civil law institute of liquidation of inheritance, in this wording the term first has been implemented by Act no. 292/2013 Coll., Code on Special Court Proceedings., which came into force in 2014. The aim of the diploma thesis is to introduce the reader the term liquidation of inheritance and liquidation administrator of inheritance activity starting from appointment liquidation administrator of inheritance. The thesis offers author's reflection on the growing trend in the number of ordered liquidations of inheritance at the suggestion of the state and its consequences. To sufficiently illustrate the issue, the thesis contains appendices that better reflect the activities of liquidator administrator of inheritance, the inheritance court and the court commissioner.

The thesis is divided into seven parts, the first part of the thesis introduces the reader to the issue and explains to the reader the reasons why the author decided to write thesis about this topic. The second part deals with the institute of liquidation of inheritance itself and the preconditions that must be fulfilled in order for the liquidation of inheritance to be ordered by a court.

The third part deals with the person of the liquidation administrator of inheritance, the reader is acquainted with the issue of appointment, dismissal and activity of the liquidation administrator of inheritance. A less comprehensive part is the fourth part devoted to the content of the court decision on the order of liquidation of inheritance and its effects.

The most comprehensive part of the fifth offers an appearance into the issue of content and identification of assets belonging to the liquidation. The liquidator works up a list of these assets, in which the assets are sufficiently marked. The fifth part also contains a description of individual methods of monetization of assets belonging to the liquidation estate.

The sixth part deals with selected issues of claim registration and issuing liquidation surplus. The author deals with the issue of the difference between the registration and notification of the claim to liquidation of inheritance. In the final part, the author summarizes the content of the thesis and the fulfilment of its goals.
