

The thesis summarizes problems of the rehabilitation and the resocialization in patients with lower limb amputations. The thesis also gives an overview of treatment and therapy of these problems and observes a look of patient on his quality of life.