

ABSTRACT

Leading of movement exercises in the range of 3 minutes in order to teach children a series of exercises focused on motor skills. Simple stretching of skeletal muscles and exercises with coordination of body movement. Observation of the course of the program. Striving for positive motivation to practice the program and get feedback.

KEYWORDS

physical education. Movement, practical school, pupils with special needs

