

ABSTRACT

The diploma thesis presents the closer overview lets known of Czechoslovak social pedagogy and social work in the first half of the 20th century, Olga Fierz. Based on the content analysis of the secondary written sources, the aim is to define which social and educational features Olga Fierz used in her practical care of homeless, Jewish and German children during the years 1933 to 1947 and to determine their contribution and significance. In the end, the results of research are formulated, providing an answer to the research goals.

KEYWORDS

Social pedagogy, social work, Olga Fierz, Premysl Pitter, Milíčův House, internment camps, concentration camps, childcare, Jewish children, German children, Action Castles.