

Abstract:

This bachelor thesis analyses the development of the pedagogical programme of kindergarten teachers between the years 1918-1938. Mostly it is based on the Journal of the Kindergarten Teachers, in which teachers defined their pedagogical reform proposals, often based on foreign reform movements, their demands for the enactment of the kindergarten schools or for changes regarding kindergarten teacher education.