

Abstract

Title of the thesis: Power football

Objectives: The bachelor thesis is focused on introducing new sport game for community of handicapped people and sport public. The game is suitable only for persons on electric wheelchair. The aim is to present basic information about the game especially for hard-hitted persons on electric wheelchair.

Method: The study is made by the Method of review, on the basis of summary from theoretical knowledge and specialized information from European and world sources.

Issues: Summary of presently known information about the new game „electric wheelchair football“ and translation of the game rules, helps to extend this new sport activity for handicapped. It also can enrich physical training for handicapped athletes, publishing in the magazine „Vozíčkář“.

Keywords: new sport game, rules, football on electric wheelchairs.