

The subject matter of this diploma thesis „Sexual Education“ is sexual education in the Czech Republic, specifically dedicated to the study of the integration of sexual education into the educational process in schools and families.