

ABSTRACT

In this work is presented what is to be understood as a spiritual care in a prison. You shall find here also the elementary structure of the Detention prison Prague – Ruzyně. The conditions for a spiritual life within the Detention prison Prague – Ruzyně are characterised in this study from the point of view of its author. Furthermore, there is as well a brief description of accessible stimulations for the spiritual life within the same prison. What follows is a list of particular impulses for a spiritual life with authentic testimonies. The author describes the institutional guarantee of conditions for a spiritual life in a prison within the Czech Republic. The informations about forms and conditions of a spiritual life in a prison were obtained with a help of anonymous questionnaires.