Course of defence: The student presented his thesis in a non satisfactory way. He didn't manage to answer main issues from the reviews, especially the lack of connection between methodology and the empirical part of the thesis. The student also didn't explain well the lack of literature review and didn't elaborate on intersectionality. The main discussed issue was the research question with the connection to the case selection. The student tackled these issue in a very basic ways. The commission thus decided to award him with the grade of F.
