

The presented work is focusing on assessment of school libraries in Olomouc region. The theoretical introduction accompanied by description of educational system in particular region is also described. The current status of school libraries was estimated using field research and questionnaires.