

The main topic of the graduation thesis is the genre of comics and its dismemberment about different criteria. This graduation thesis is concerned with the beginning and the progression in Czech Republic and in the world. There is the emphasis on the history of the classical comics and its specificity for pre-school and younger school age. The graduation thesis suggests group of ideas and games, it maps the current comics production on the pages of contemporary periodicals.