

Graduation theses processes the theme of drugs from a view of diagnostic institution for youthfull clients. The objective of these was charting an attitude of the Czech Republic towards of young people's problems from the point of view of placement to diagnostic institution. It is aimed at works with group of this age, reports real view of clients and their problems. Inquiry at diagnostic institutions was done by questionnaires. Clients expressed their experience with drugs, attitudes to drugs and to stay at diagnostic institution.