

The thesis, having for its topic illustration of children's books, focuses on the progressive 1960s illustration, its division into lyrical and humorous trends, and its chief artists. It also covers the best contemporary illustration, its inspirations and authors. The didactic part includes illustration artwork exercises for students of primary and secondary schools.