

The following diploma thesis gives a brief summary of artists and artistic waves which depict the world of technics and engineering. It tries to discover their linkages to the development of fine art and explore artistic transformation of reality. The work presents a machine and technical inventions as a source of inspiration for visual creation. Theoretical part of my thesis gives evidence of works inspired by motives like a machine or an invention.