

This thesis is dealing with the topic of fantasy in art with a special focus on picturing the main hero in so called heroic fantasy. Fantasy genre is seen in context of its ideological sources and it also shows its impact on current culture and its variety. This work concentrates on general features of heroic fantasy subgenre in art and on analysis of chosen character types - warriors. Furthermore, this work is offering a possible application of this theme in art education at schools.