

Abstract

Title: Islamic Solidarity Games

Objective: This diploma thesis focuses on the analysis of multi-sport games on the territory of states professing Islam. The main emphasis is placed on the Islamic Solidarity Games, their historical development, organizational structures and how it is affected by the geopolitical situation in the region. a partial goal is the evaluation of the position of women and comparing sports performances.

Methods: The diploma thesis uses basic methods of theoretical work, i.e. methods of historical analysis, induction and comparative studies. The methods used are described in more detail in the Methodology chapter.

Results: The output is a research paper describing the anabasis for the creation of Islamic Games of Belonging. Furthermore, a description of individual games, sporting performances on the example of selected sports and other activities of the ISSF.

Key words: Islam, Islamic Solidarity Games, Pan-Arabism, Olympism