

Title: The use of games in physical education classes at the 2nd primary schools

English title: The sport of using games in Physical Education lessons at elementary schools (grades 5-9)

Aims:

- To examine the importance of physical education teachers put sports games in physical education classes
- Examine whether the introduction of the new curriculum of physical education teachers assume a change in the physical education
- Check whether the elementary school teachers are planning the introduction of curriculum extension of hours of physical education
- Find out what is material support for the teaching of physical education in primary schools in South Bohemia
- To find out their attitudes 2nd primary schools for physical education and specifically to sports games
- Confirm or refute the hypothesis

methods:

A questionnaire survey based on questionnaires for physical education teachers and students second primary schools

Results:

- Teachers prefer sports games from other activities in physical education classes
- Most teachers no substantial change in the physical education
- Elementary school option available to extend hours for physical education
- Material support teaching sports games in South Bohemia at a good level
- Sports games are the second pupil primary schools of the South Bohemian Region of the most popular activities in physical education classes
- The general educational program could bring about some changes in the teaching of sports games

Keywords: general educational program, school curriculum, elementary education, physical education, sports games, questionnaires, research