

Abstract

Thesis name: Confrontation of game performance efficiency between Czech and foreign players of the Czech highest men basketball league during seasons 2003/2004 – 2007/2008.

Thesis aim: Coherent formulation of determination proces of limitation of foreign players in the Czech highest men basketball league and ascertainment of the impact these changes had on the game space of Czech players. The aim is also the efficiently confrontation of Czech and foreign players.

Method: The main methods are document analysis and secondary analysis.

Outcome: The outcome should point out at the insufficient game space Czech players have in the Czech highest men basketball league and it should provoke a discussion about the quality of young Czech players who are transferring to the adult league.

Keywords: basketball, dokument analysis, foreign players, statictical data.