

Abstrakt (English version)

Title: Organization and management of football academies abroad.

Targets: To create advances in football academies abroad and compare it with education of the talented players in czech conditions.

Method: Background research, exploration of facts, descriptive analysis and standardized interview have been chosen as the selected methodology to achieve the targets.

Results: Confrontation of the educational system for the talented players between Czech and abroad. (Positive and negative trends, identic and different approach).

Keywords: academy, football academy, football clubs, talent