

The diploma paper is engaged in children of different nationality in kindergarten. The theoretical part goes from expert literature, defines the concepts adherent to multicultural and intercultural upbringing, analyses several deferent cultures, gives information about the number of children of differ nationality in kindergartens in the Czech Republic.

Them diploma paper describes the situation in one from the Prague districts according a structure and a number of children of the different nationality in the practical part. This part brings results from the special project "The Multifarious World" which targets the development of multicultural and intercultural feeling of children of preschool ages. The project inform about opinions of teachers of the kindergarten and parents of children of different nationality too.