

Diploma work deals with social and physical environment of classroom and school. The theoretical part characterises educational environment and briefly describes psychosocial climate research methods at elementary schools. The practical part deals with actual and preferred social climate using standardised questionnaires „My class inventory - Actual form", „My class inventory - Preferred form" and physical climate using author's questionnaire, evaluating acquired results.