

Abstract

The rigorous theses focuses on „the advance directives“ in Czech and German as far as the law and ethical texts are concerned. Author of this thesis analyses selected texts and focuses especially on problems, to which these texts draw attention.

Furthermore, this thesis provides a systematization, classification and proposes a starting point of their solving.