

Annotation

Keywords: peritoneal dialysis, haemodialysis, dialysis Center, education, quality of life, catheter

This bachelor thesis is divided into two parts. The first part describes the theory of related to kidney disease, the treatment of nephrologic patients and the nursing care in dialysis patients. The second part describes our questionnaire-based reasearch of the quality of life in dialysis patients.

This thesis underlines the importance of the professional attitude of the medical staff, of a comprehensive, planned and individualised patient care, which significantly affect the quality of life in dialysis patients.