

Annotatin

Paper is mentioned about care of multiple trauma patient. In introduction of this paper is general approach to multiple trauma with particular analysis of phasis of multiple trauma patient care. There is characterization of local problems of care in the Department of Emergency Medicine in University Hospital Hradec Kralove also. Eight case reports are showed with complete description of nursing diagnosis and interventions.