

Hana Tonzarová

František Kovář ve vztahu k ekumeně

František Kovář in the relation to ecumenicalism

The doctoral thesis František Kovář in the relation to ecumenicalism analyses the development of the 3th patriarch of the Czechoslovak hussite church in the relation to the churches and the ecumenical movement at home as well as abroad from his childhood till his leaving of the active service in the church, including his influence of the ecumenical developmnet of the church. On the strength of his thinking and work acquaints the work with the development of his idea Kingdom of God in the earth, he maintained, and it became also his ecumenical criterium. In the theological and church-historical cntext describes the work also Kovar's reflexion of the Czechoslovak church in the relation to other churches.