

ANNOTATION

This thesis EDUCATION WITHOUT COERCION IN THE NARRATIVES OF DAISY MRAZKOVA focuses on the search for new impulses for education and evangelization of children through literary works. The autor stops particularly at the work of Daisy Mrazkova and reveals the values hidden in it: the value of human life and its sense and fulfilment, the value of human relations, value of the goodness in man, nature and home.

Last but not least the autor shows the value of written words as a place of inner adventure, reflection and joy of many moments, which provide a new direction and fresh strength to our life.

Keywords: children, education, evangelization, art, life values.