

Abstract

Title: Trainers' Sport Reflection

Goals: Analysis of the high-qualification trainer students' opinions on position of sport in human life and society, formulated previously in their written works entitled „What sport has taken from me and given me“.

Method: Qualitative analysis was performed by means of research and content analysis of the document mentioned above.

Result: The role of sport in human life and society is described from the point of view of present high-qualification trainer students.

Key words: Sport, reflexion, trainer, qualitative analysis, individual and social values concerning sport, trainer profession