

Abstract

Title: Support of sports in the region around Havlíčkův Brod

Objective: The aim of the thesis is to analyze municipalities' approaches to providing support for sports in the region around Havlíčkův Brod, Czech Republic.

Methods: A questionnaire survey and interviews were especially employed to obtain data. We have also applied primary and secondary data analysis in our thesis.

Results: Organization and staffing are the most lacking areas as regards support of sports within municipalities. In addition, we have discovered that large towns are involved in sports more than small towns.

Key words: municipality, sports, funding, sports facility, support of sports
