

Diploma thesis deals with the integration of Vietnamese students in the Czech culture. The theoretical part contains information related to multiculturalism and its development in the Czech Republic. Following the multicultural reality of the theoretical part deals with multicultural education, not only in the CR, but also in other countries which have about multicultural education experience. Also identifies Vietnamese ethnicity, which resides in the Czech Republic with an emphasis on Vietnamese children in Czech schools. In the practical part examines approaches Czech pupils and teachers to Vietnamese students. Furthermore, the feelings and values of Vietnamese students and confronts them with the real situation at the elementary school in the Czech Republic.