

My thesis deals with speech therapy of deaf children at the elementary school. The thesis compares the results of questionnaires and observations of speech therapy in the basic schools for deaf children. The aim of my thesis is to map the current state of speech therapy in these schools, and possibly to point out available solutions to current drawbacks.