

The aim of this disertation is the describes therapeutics methods, procedures and aids, witch are offered and most frequently used in the teaching of sensual upbringing at the rehabilitave classes at the special basic school.

The second part is devoted to a survey of therapeutics methods and procedures used for the education of pupils with mental higher and pupils with combined higher of education in accordance with the rehabilitave educational program of the rehabilitative classes at the basic schools for students with special needs in the area of sensual upbringing. The end of disertation is devoted to illustartions and a description of some, hand made, interesting aids in these classes.