

The Diploma thesis „Possibility of using dance for people with mental disabilities“ is providing of effects on dancing and movement to person with mental disabilities. Limited notions important for this thesis to get acquainted with some techniques of dance therapy and styles using for people with mental disabilities. Thesis describes using the dancing techniques in three visited institution. It suggests dance and movement lessons divided according to the age. A part of thesis is CD with several explained segment of belly dancing.