

Name of the diploma work: Hygienic habits of Elementary school pupils and Grammar school students. Presented diploma work is dealing with the personal hygiene of pupils and students in the age of 11 to 19. Goal of this work is to find out and compare hygienic habits of pupils and students in the age of 11 to 19. Research has been carried out by the questionnaire. The research pattern consisted of pupils and students in Czech republic in the age of 11 to 19. Overall number of questioned people was 405. The questionnaire was divided into 5 sections. In the first section were identification data such as gender, age, school. In the next sections were questions related to the washing of hands, mouth hygiene, personal hygiene. In the last section were questions related to finger licking, drinking, food and driveling. Results were plotted into the tables and graphs, and were used to confirm previously proposed hypotheses.