

Knowledge of food intake disorders in secondary school students The diploma work is intended on eating disorders which are two basic and in this time the most significant illness - the mental anorexia and mental bulimia. In the teoretical part is definined conception of eating disorders, the folowing history of those illness, causes of origin, definition and characterization of mental anorexia and mental bulimia and attack of overeating, their basic diagnostic criteria, results, way of cure and prevention. In the research part is of the pupil of the high school with help of questionnaire Metod investigated level knowledge of the problems, satifaction with own figuře and look, the opinions on the own weight, reason and appropriate measure for getting the bodily weight down, limit of influence publicity of beauty and slimness.