

The thesis deals with education of pupils in right of the child in the first stage of Primary school. The creation of the methodics for education in right of the child and putting it to practice are the aims of my thesis. This aim has been putting across using partial aims as analysis of the legal documents, which collocate with the education of pupils in right of the child, mapping the conditions for the education in order to realize the education, therefore the casuistry of Primary and Maternity school of Holetín has been created, the way of the right of the child settling and their education in School educational programme „Getting to know the world" of this school, and at the end the confirmation of the didactic materials by the operational research.

Key words— right of child, legal documents, methodics, education, first stage of primary school, didactic material, School educational programme, operational research