

Theme of this graduation thesis is activating teaching methods. It is aimed to explore the functions of particular activating teaching methods considering the educational goals, aims, conditions, but also regarding teacher's teaching style.

The thesis is made in order to be a guide for beginning teachers. It also ought to help everybody who does not underestimate this theme to develop his professional education.