The presented thesis consists of the two parts. First part is sociological and pedagogical view of culture, interculturalism and multiculturalism. The next theme is the progress of Japanese school system and the present attitude of Art Education. The last fundamental theme is the historical summary of elected themes of Japanese culture. Second part is focused on the art project, which insists on the Japanese culture.