

The subject of this thesis is the comparison of the European and American basketball rules.

Evolution of the rules in Europe and in America. The description of the current rules and definition of their positives and negatives with respect to individual and team conception.

In the research (among the basketball players) I will focus on the typical differences between the rules (like e.g. three seconds rule, longer distance of three point line).