

The diploma work prologue describes the history and metamorphosis of Mlada Boleslav region from ancient times till today. Furthermore, it illustrates its the cultural development. The main objective of the diploma work is to record important associations, institutions, musical groups and individuals of the area of artificial music, who had enriched musical life in this region.